Common Myths About Retirement Plans

Myth “Offering a retirement plan is expensive.”

Fact The NAMIC 401(k) Plan is a multiple employer plan (MEP) that offers economies of scale by aggregating assets and administration.

The result: Lower costs for a member that joins the NAMIC MEP.

Myth “I don’t have the time to sponsor a retirement plan. My staff will be buried in administrative paperwork.”

Fact Virtually all administrative tasks can be offloaded to NAMIC and Transamerica.¹

The result: The company can focus on running its business, not its retirement plan.

Myth “My business will receive no tax advantages from offering a retirement plan.”

Fact Certain qualified defined contribution plans allow company contributions to be tax deductible as a business expense.²

The result: More money that your business can put to work.

Myth “My employees will not appreciate or value a retirement plan.”

Fact 62% of full-time employees whose employer doesn’t offer a retirement plan said they would likely leave their current job for a nearly identical position with a similar employer that offered one.³

The result: Attract and retain top talent.
